1. Why This Disclaimer Exists

Home LYNQ™ provides education, community, and professional networking opportunities. Some Members also become eligible for Member Rewards, as described in the Member Rewards & Professional Network Policy. Because money is involved, we want to be completely clear, upfront, about what Home LYNQ does and does not promise.

This Earnings & Educational Disclaimer explains that Home LYNQ's Educational Content is exactly that — educational — and that any income a Member earns depends on that Member's own effort, market conditions, and many other factors outside Home LYNQ's control. We'd rather set that expectation clearly now than have it feel like a surprise later.

2. Educational Purpose

Home LYNQ's courses, events, coaching resources, and other Educational Content are intended to support a Member's professional development and personal growth. They are educational and informational in nature and are not a substitute for professional advice specific to a Member's individual circumstances — including legal, tax, accounting, financial, investment, real estate, mortgage, or insurance advice.

Members should consult a qualified professional — an attorney, accountant, financial advisor, or licensed real estate professional, as appropriate — before making decisions based on anything learned through Home LYNQ.

3. No Guarantee of Income or Results

Home LYNQ does not guarantee that any Member will earn any particular amount of income, achieve any particular result, or realize any specific level of success by participating in Home LYNQ, the Professional Network, or any Member Rewards program.

Results vary from person to person and depend on factors such as:

- the effort, time, and skill a Member invests;
- a Member's professional background, licensing, and experience;
- market and economic conditions beyond Home LYNQ's control;
- the size and activity of a Member's own professional network; and
- how consistently a Member applies what they've learned.

Because these factors are personal to each Member, Home LYNQ cannot and does not promise that any Member's experience will resemble another Member's.

4. Member Rewards Are Not Guaranteed

Eligibility for Member Rewards is voluntary and depends on meeting the requirements described in the Member Rewards & Professional Network Policy and the current Member Rewards Plan in effect at the time. Simply being a Home LYNQ Member does not entitle a Member to any Member Rewards, and past availability of a particular reward or program doesn't guarantee it will continue to be offered.

Home LYNQ's educational programs are designed to help Members build real skills and real relationships — not to promise a specific financial outcome from participating in Member Rewards or the Professional Network.

5. Examples & Testimonials

From time to time, Home LYNQ may share examples, case studies, or testimonials describing another Member's experience, including income or results they achieved. These are shared to illustrate what's possible, not to represent what's typical or guaranteed.

Any individual results mentioned in Home LYNQ materials, whether in writing, in a live event, or elsewhere, are the experience of that specific individual and shouldn't be understood as an average, an expectation, or a promise of similar results for any other Member.

6. Guest Speakers

Home LYNQ may invite guest speakers to share educational content, professional experiences, leadership principles, or other topics intended to benefit Members. The opinions expressed by a guest speaker are their own and don't necessarily represent the views of Home LYNQ. Members are encouraged to evaluate what they hear thoughtfully and decide what's appropriate for their own circumstances.

7. Personal Development Content

As part of helping Members grow both professionally and personally, Home LYNQ may periodically share Educational Content on topics like leadership, communication, mindset, or goal setting. This content is educational and inspirational, not medical, psychological, therapeutic, or other professional advice — if something in this area calls for a professional, that's a conversation to have with one, not with a course.

8. Professional Network Referrals

Home LYNQ facilitates connections between Members and Participating Professionals through the Professional Network. Home LYNQ doesn't guarantee the quality, availability, pricing, or performance of services provided by a Participating Professional, or any outcome from working with one. Members and any consumers they refer are responsible for independently evaluating a Participating Professional before engaging their services.

9. Third-Party Content

Home LYNQ may provide access to third-party websites, resources, software, or educational materials. Home LYNQ doesn't control, and isn't responsible for, third-party content, services, or policies; references to third-party resources are provided for convenience and educational purposes only.

10. Independent Judgment & Compliance

Members remain responsible for their own business decisions, professional judgment, and compliance with any licensing or legal requirements applicable to their profession — including, where relevant, real estate, mortgage, insurance, or other licensing laws. Nothing in Home LYNQ's Educational Content or Member Rewards programs relieves a Member of that responsibility.

This is part of what makes Leverage Your Network Quickly work responsibly: Home LYNQ provides the education, community, and connections, and Members bring their own professional judgment to how they use them.

11. Changes to Programs & This Disclaimer

Home LYNQ continually improves its Educational Content, speakers, resources, and Member benefits, and these may change over time without creating an obligation to continue offering any specific content or program indefinitely. Home LYNQ may also update this Disclaimer to reflect changes in our programs or applicable law. When material changes are made, Home LYNQ will provide reasonable notice through the Home LYNQ Website, Member Platform, email, or other appropriate means.

A Message to Our Members

We built Home LYNQ around education, relationships, and opportunity — and we want every Member to walk in with clear eyes about what that means.

Real opportunity comes from real effort, real relationships, and real skill — not from a promise we can't keep. We'd rather earn your trust by being honest about that from day one.

Because honest expectations are what let you Leverage Your Network Quickly with real confidence, not false hope.

Thank you for being part of the Home LYNQ community.

Together, let's continue to...

Learn. Grow. Connect. Serve.
